

Courage & Calling

The Courage & Calling Series invites you into the stories of ordinary people who stepped into extraordinary moments. Each candle reflects a defining act of bravery; a heart stirred, a path chosen, and a calling answered. These fragrances honor the quiet strength, bold obedience, and God-given courage that still inspires us today.

Burning Bush: Scent Notes ~ Hot Firewood, Red Cedar, and Midnight Amber

Warm, glowing, and quietly powerful. This fragrance rises with a gentle ember-like warmth before settling into a steady, reverent depth. It carries the feeling of a holy moment, one that draws you in, stills the heart, and reminds you that sacred encounters often begin with a spark. ~ Exodus 3:2–4

David & Goliath: Scent Notes ~ Soft Leather, Bright Bergamot Citrus, Red Cedar

Strong, grounded, and confidently bold. This fragrance opens with a steady strength and moves into a warm, resolute finish. It reflects courage taking shape; the kind that stands firm, breathes deep, and steps forward even when the odds seem impossible. ~ 1 Samuel 17

Esther's Courage: Scent Notes ~ Crisp Autumn Night, Soft White Linen, Bright Bergamot Citrus

Soft, elegant, and quietly brave. This fragrance carries a gentle clarity that rises into a poised, graceful presence. It reflects the beauty of courage born from obedience; a strength that is calm, steady, and willing to stand for what is right, even when the cost is great. ~ Esther 4:14

Good Samaritan: Scent Notes ~ Midnight Amber, Nature Walk, Red Cedar

Warm, compassionate, and deeply comforting. This fragrance moves with a gentle richness that settles into a grounded, steady warmth. It reflects kindness in motion; the willingness to stop, lift, and care for another with generosity that asks for nothing in return. ~ Luke 10:33–34
